

- PRESS RELEASE -
Clermont County Public Library

326 Broadway Street • Batavia, OH 45103

For Immediate Release

LIBRARY TALL-TALE ESSAY WINNER

Batavia, OH – The Clermont County Public Library (CCPL) recently held a Tall-Tale Essay contest challenging teens to create a story explaining why their library books were overdue. The contest titled, Why My Library Materials Are Overdue ran April 15-21, in conjunction with National Library Week.

Rebecca Powell of Union Township was awarded the grand prize, a $50 savings bond, for her winning essay. She captivated essay judges with her tale of book reports, theft, Ebay bid-wars and frustrated mothers. Her winning essay can be viewed at www.clermontlibrary.org.

To learn more about other exciting library contests and programs, stop by your local library or check out our website, www.clermontlibrary.org.

PHOTO CAPTION: (From L to R) Cindy Mahaffey, Systemwide Programmer for CCPL presents a $50 savings bond to Rebecca Powell of Union Township.

The Clermont County Public Library strives to provide innovative access to information and services that stimulate the diverse educational, informational, and recreational needs and interests of the community. Further, the library seeks to be an integral part of the community in cooperation with other community organizations.

Media contact: Amy Prewitt
513-735-7158 prewita@oplin.org
Program contact: Cindy Mahaffey
513-735-7197 mahaffci@oplin.org