NO MORE RENTAL FEES @ your library!

Batavia, OH – Thanks to the community’s continued support and generosity, Clermont County Public Library (CCPL) is excited to announce the return of DVD lending – without the rental fee!

The Library Board of Trustees voted in favor of discontinuing the $1.00 rental fee for feature films and television series.

“The library is very grateful to the community for their continued support,” says Executive Director David Mezack. “Without their support we’d never receive the funding necessary to provide services, such as entertainment DVD lending, free of charge.”

In addition to remaining fiscally responsible during this economic downturn, the passage of Issue 28 helped make it possible for customers to once again borrow all DVDs in library circulation without paying the $1 rental fee. Items requested through MORE (Moving Ohio’s Resources Everywhere) will also be available free of charge. A limit of five DVDs can be borrowed at a time for a period of seven days. They may be renewed one time in person, by phone, or online – as long as there are no holds on the item.

The $1.00 fee was originally instituted January 3, 2006, after reviewing the State of Ohio’s 2006 Biennium Budget and the Library’s long-term funding plan.
