NEW OFFICE DEPOT DONATES TO CLERMONT COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

FOR RELEASE: January 14, 2005

Office Depot, one of the world's leading resellers of office products and services, is Taking Care of Business. They celebrated the opening of their new Clermont County store, located at 4530 Eastgate Boulevard, by making donations to local community organizations at a ribbon cutting ceremony on January 6.

Taking Care of Business signifies Office Depot's new brand positioning intended to impact business customers. It focuses on four key areas: Value, Selection, Quality, and Service. It includes the introduction of exclusive product offerings, enhancements to the Advantage Rewards program, more frequent training and support, valuable supplemental services, and expanded environmental stewardship.

Office Depot made a $500 donation to the Union Township Branch of the Clermont County Public Library. Lisa Salyers, branch manager, says, "The money will be used for children's programming at the Union Township Branch. We appreciate Office Depot's generous donation and will put the money to good use."

Office Depot also made $500 donations to the Freestore Foodbank, Inc. and Bethany House Services. "Office Depot's charitable mission is to enhance the quality of life in the communities in which we live and work," noted Rick Lepley, Executive Vice President of North American Retail at Office Depot. "We are very excited about the opportunity to support organizations that make such a meaningful difference in the lives of children every day."

For more information on children's programs and other events at the Union Township Branch Library, call 528-1744.
